Mays Business School will offer the following undergraduate faculty-led programs for Winter 2022. Faculty-led programs have a duration of 2 weeks up to 1 month, are led by a Mays faculty member and are open to business majors and minors. All courses are Mays Business School courses and are taught in English. These programs allow students to develop cross-cultural communication skills while gaining valuable international business exposure. Scholarships and financial aid are available. Apply online at tx.ag/MaysWinter.
