“...What made my experience amazing was my program directors. From learning public transportation to finding the best beaches and restaurants in the city, they never failed to give you a helping hand. They wanted each program participant to have the best time of their life which made my experience one to remember. When it came to my internship... LOVED IT. I worked with an amazing group of people in the Communications Department at Telefonica who pushed me to work on my Spanish-speaking and taught me more about Spanish culture. Thanks to Global Experiences, I am trying to plan my next trip back to Barcelona.”

— Kaicey, Temple University

“I would tell anyone who is thinking about interning abroad is to just do it. There is no comparison to this kind of experience. GE has prepared their interns so well but also gives them space to make the internship what they want. I’m so grateful GE gave me this experience.”

— Corrine, Furman University

CREATIVE INDUSTRIES
INTERNSHIP EXAMPLE

Jessica, University of British Columbia
Art History Major
Art History Internship  | Florence, Italy  | Spring

Company: Ars et Fides
Ars et Fides Florence is an association of volunteer tour guides. They offer free educational resources to tourists and locals throughout the most famous churches in Florence and throughout Italy. They offer guided tours and are excited to offer you, as their intern, the opportunity to lead these tours. The tours allow visitors to indulge in the historical, architectural, artistic and religious aspects of these amazing sites.

Tasks
• Studying and understanding the history of the Duomo and Florence
• Creating and organizing tours of the Duomo
• Assisting visitors with questions about the church/art/history
• Maintaining the organization of the visitor check-in center

“Global Experiences was one of the best decisions I have ever made! Not only was the work placement perfect, allowing me to use my university education daily, but I gained so much knowledge about the Italian culture and lifestyle. Global Experiences provided so much to further enhance my experience in Italy including day trips and cultural events. The Florence location coordinator, provided by GE, was incredibly kind and helpful, supportive and compassionate, with great advice on things to do in the city. Interning with Global Experiences is so much more than just a work experience. It is an experience that allows you to live your life like a true Italian - a real cultural work experience!”

— Jessica, University of British Columbia

“Spent 8 weeks in Dublin and it was fantastic! First time travelling and living independently abroad and it is a life changing experience. My placement found by GE was exactly what I was looking for and I feel as though I really thrived. Very much looking forward to showing future employers the work I have done. I highly recommend taking this leap and choosing to intern abroad.”

SOCIAL IMPACT INTERNSHIP EXAMPLE

Malik, Texas Tech University
Political Science Major | Dublin, Ireland | Summer

Interned for Senator Humphreys
Government/Politics for a Member of Irish Parliament

Kevin Humphreys is an Irish Labour Party politician who has served as a Senator for the Administrative Panel since April 2016. He previously served as Minister of State for Employment, Community and Social Support from 2014 to 2016.

Tasks
• Managing social media on all platforms
• Handling issues affecting Dublin that come out of Parliament’s Finance and Environmental Committees
• Researching and speech writing
• Handling projects for the party’s re-election campaign
• Possible opportunity to get involved in some areas such as contributing to speech content and material, affordable public housing, and educational programs

“Going to Dublin for an internship was a thought that remained imaginary for me even after I was accepted. I’m a first generation student from a low socio-economic family, so I constantly had the “This can’t happen for me” thought. However, after multiple communicative transactions with the GE crew, I began to think that this adventure was going to happen.”

— Malik, Texas Tech University

“My time in Barcelona has easily been the best of my life. Global Experiences helps every single step of the way and resolved each issue that presented itself perfectly. Saskia and Inma are so kind hearted and diligent. I recommend Global Experiences to anyone planning on studying abroad, especially in Barcelona!!”

STEM INTERNSHIP EXAMPLE

Josephine, University of Copenhagen
International and Public Law Major
London, England | Fall

Company: South West London Environment Network (SWLEN)
Environmental Protection Opportunity in South West London

SWLEN is a charity dedicated to helping people and organizations protect and enhance the environment. They work in the London Boroughs of Richmond upon Thames, Kingston upon Thames and Hounslow. The work focuses on preserving and protecting green spaces and biodiversity, promoting sustainability and community development and supporting environmental groups in achieving their goals.

Tasks
• Providing support with a crowdfunding campaign run on behalf of the community centre they are based in
• Helping review the Biodiversity Action Plan before publishing it
• Helping organize a launch event for the above

“ I arrived three weeks after the beginning of the program and was a bit scared of being left off. Carmen made me feel welcome right away. But, most importantly she was there when I was feeling down and anxious about my projects. She helped me organize myself even for undertakings that had nothing to do with Global Experiences. I have now completed them with success and it is partly due to her. I consider her as a friend and I know she will always be here for me even if the program ended.”
— Josephine, University of Copenhagen

“ Interning with GE has provided me with a lasting experience that will last me a lifetime. I interned with Medland Metropolis, an engineering firm in London. I’ve gained not only invaluable working experience with my company but also tremendous personal growth.”

INTERNING FOR ACADEMIC CREDIT

Global Experiences has a school of record partnership with Fairfield University. The partnership allows participants to receive academic transcripts for their internship experience for both summer and semester programs. 3 - 6 credits can be awarded for the internship experience and two additional 3-credit upper-level courses are also available. This allows participants to pursue a 12-credit course load during their internship abroad.

Courses include:

GE298: Global Experiences International Internship
A combination of contact hours of internship combined with journaling, graded reflection pieces, and assignments, this course is the academic compliment to a GE internship.

GE301: Global Workforce and Leadership Development
This course is focused on preparing students to enter the global workforce, increasing students’ marketability to future global employers, and assessing their leadership capacity.

GE302: Intercultural Communications in a Global Workplace
Students will learn to identify culture, cultural differences and how to navigate a multicultural workplace.

Credit Enrollment Process
› Participants enroll with GE prior to the start of the program.
› Internship syllabi correspond to the location, term, and number of credits needed.
› Upon successful completion of the course, grade reports are submitted to Fairfield.
› A final transcript is issued directly to the participant from Fairfield University 9 to 12 weeks after the program.

“Interning with GE has provided me with a lasting experience that will last me a lifetime. I’ve gained not only invaluable working experience with my company but also tremendous personal growth. Your experience is what you make of it and I’ve learned that some of the best experiences I’ve had has been due to my willingness to try new things.”

— EDMOND L, TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
Health & Safety: US-Based
› On-site location staff act as 24 / 7 emergency contact
› “Blue Book” used for staff trainings and location staff emergency response
› Global Program Director is US based point of contact
› University Relations team works with location staff to communicate with institutions
› Insurance coverage provided by Cultural Insurance Services International (CISI)

Social
Intentionally designed experiential events connect students with their host city, country, culture, and the people who live there.

Language
Short-term language training is offered through certified language schools in our Italy locations for one week in the summer and two weeks in the semester.

Visa
GE ensures all participants are interning on the appropriate visa for their destination. GE will provide visa support but does not issue visas.

Portal
Interns have access to a customized digital portal that is used throughout enrollment and pre-departure to educate, inform & inspire.

Strengths
Global Experiences is partnered with Gallup® to provide all interns with the CliftonStrengths assessment, a foundational tool for career and professional development.

Each internship experience begins with a one-hour call with a certified Gallup coach and the Strengths vocabulary is woven throughout the experience from cover letter to interview to LinkedIn profile.

Video Guides
From Budgeting Tips to Personal Branding, Rocking your Interview, and Maximizing your Internship, we have a variety of pre-departure video guides.

SCHOLARSHIPS & FINANCIAL AID
Global Experiences is continually updating its scholarship programs as part of our Generation Study Abroad commitment. In the past, scholarships have included a Global Leader Scholarship for female participants, a diversity scholarship for participants from HBCUs, and our own GE Core Values award. In addition to scholarships, students who earn academic credit for their internship experience may be able to access university financial aid to fund their program.

Beginning in 2020, GE will be contributing to eligible students who receive a Pell Grant or are awarded the Benjamin A. Gilman scholarship for their term abroad. GE will be working with University partners to verify financial need for any student that applies for a GE scholarship and requests this specific funding.
