Exchange Programs

The following exchange programs were designed for majors in the College of Liberal Arts. Exchange programs are semester or academic experiences where you study at an institution formally affiliated with the university and earn transfer credit. You pay your regular tuition to Texas A&M while abroad, and pay for housing in country. For more information on a particular exchange opportunity, click the link below. Contact information for each program is included therein.

All Majors
Kwansei Gakuin University (Japan)
Tilburg University (Netherlands)

Communication
Abat Oliba University (Spain)

Economics
Erasmus School of Economics (Netherlands)
Southwestern University of Finance and Economics (China)

Philosophy
Vrije University (Netherlands)

Christie Dunn
International Programs Manager
College of Liberal Arts
979-845-5142
cadunn@tamu.edu